

WILL INVESTIGATE COAL MINERS' STRIKE

Senate Authorizes Investigation of Conditions in Paint Creek Region

SECOND EVER INSTITUTED

Is Second Investigation Ever Made of the Acts of a State By Branch of Federal Government

COMMITTEE WILL MEET TODAY

WASHINGTON, MAY 27.—By a vivi voice vote the senate today passed the resolution authorizing a sweeping investigation of conditions preceding and accompanying the strike of coal miners in the Paint Creek region in West Virginia. The resolution first introduced in somewhat different form by Senator Kern has been before the senate for a month, the subject of many bitter attacks and of scores of speeches of commendation. Under the resolution's authority the senate through the education and labor committee will look into charges of peonage in West Virginia, of violation of the immigration laws; of interference with the mails and postoffices and of violation of the constitution and laws of the United States in the trial of citizens by a military tribunal. It will examine reported combinations among operators in violation of the Sherman anti-trust act and alleged discrimination by immigration authorities at ports of entry and determine whether arms and explosives were imported into Paint Creek for Second of Kind in History.

The investigation will be the second in the history of the nation so far as senators have shown in detail steps to be made of the acts of a state by a legislative branch of the federal government. The strike in the Couer D' Alene mining region in Idaho was investigated by a house committee in 1900.

The education and labor committee will meet probably tomorrow to begin the work of investigation. It's first action will be the naming of a sub-committee to make a personal trip to the coal strike region to ex-will be chairman and Senators Shields, Swanson, Martine and Kenyon will be the other members. The sub-committee's report is looked for Struck at Foundation of Liberty.

 "The governor of West Virginia struck at the foundation of human liberty," declared Senator Reed, discussing the establishment of martial law and the trial of citizens in a military tribunal. "He stands in the glory and in my opinion he will stand there as long as men revere liberty in West Virginia."

"I say," he continued, "there nev-fell from George, the Third, or any of his ministers; there never was written in the infamous reign of Charles, the Second, a doctrine more destructive of human liberty and of law and order than the doctrine

"We're now confronted with. It is a doctrine so monstrous that it shocks the confidence and appalls the judgment of every man who loves his country."

Senator Root, admitting that he and not know what might result from the inquiry, declared that it should be made so that legislation might be perfected if necessary to insure the protection of the weak citizen in the rights guaranteed him by the constitution.

DISPLAY OF INDUSTRIAL ARTS ATTRACTS MANY VISITORS

Work of Students at High School
Shows Excellent Results in These Departments.

The manual training and household science exhibitions at the high school attracted a large crowd Tuesday afternoon and evening. The exhibition in the manual training department represented the work of the pupils for the past ten years, the time since this line of work was introduced in the school.

Miss Anna G. Brown has been in charge of this department, which has been built up to a high degree of perfection through her management. On the main floor of the auditorium was found the work of the students and showed the various articles which had been made in the past ten years. The following is the list:

Wood Turning.

Carl Hempel, trays, jewel boxes, potatoe masher, candle stick; Harold Smith, trays; Wallace Hemmrough, trays; Paul Wells, trays; Russell McConnell, trays, candle stick; Walton Boxell, trays; Everett Reynolds, trays, tie holder; Plate Ricks, tabourets, knife and fork boxes, sleds, dog house, shelves, books holders, stools, a level, Henry Ricks, trays; Julian Malone, desk, library table.

In this department the pupils furnish their own lumber and during the past year 135 pupils have been taking the course. The department is crowded for space and recently has taken possession of a little room under the stairway which had been used for a supply room. If more space were available, the work of the students would remain at the high school until after they graduated. The equipment has been in use at every period of the day. The department is also very anxious to add more machinery and equipment for next year, when it will be possible to do more work in the grades. The pupils in this work are required to make blue prints and their mechanical drawings are worthy of especial mention.

Household Science Department.

Miss Isabel Baldwin has charge of the household science department and the exhibition is a most creditable work. The freshmen had on exhibition a complete outfit of underwear, some garments having the handwork, crochet lace and tatting. They also made white suits, consisting of linen and pique skirts, and white waists, night gowns, aprons and sewing bags. The sophomores had on exhibition kimono, princess slips, house and street dresses, including some splendid embroidery work. There are 150 pupils in this department and Miss Melick has been the capable assistant of the department. There was no exhibition of cookery, but books were on display which showed that the students had collected considerable data on the subject.

Basketry Work.

A splendid display was given in the basketry work of the pupils of the grades, this department being under the supervision of Miss Dohrt. All sorts of articles, such as rugs, baskets of every description, needle work, stenciled mats, cross stitch designs, were shown. The doll houses, which were fully equipped, made a pleasing and attractive part of the exhibit. The picture display from pupils from the first to the eighth grade showed some very commendable work. There were surface designs, wall paper rugs, madonnas, water color landscapes, still life in pencil and water colors. All the exhibits were this year's work.

The exhibition will be opened all day today and this evening and the friends are cordially invited to inspect the work of the students.

MARKET LETTERS.

Kansas City Market.

Kansas City Stock Yards, May 26. Shipments of stock cattle and feeders from here to country points last week amounted to 6,500 head, one thousand more than corresponding week last year. More would have gone out had the been available. Mr. P. R. Alliman of Mayland, Iowa, who has been here last week buying cattle, probably expressed the main reason for the strong demand from the country when he said, while here: "Our country is full of pasture fields, where the grass was never more abundant but we are just about as near out of cattle as we could be. Besides this, the hay crop is assured, and it will be a big one." Trade in stock sows, heifers and bulls is active also. Prices on thing cattle today show little change from a week ago, stock steers running from $7.25 to $7.75 for bulk and feeders $7.40 to $7.75. A few fancy stock steers sell around $8.00. A year ago top on feeders was $7.40, and on stockers $6.85. Receipts here today were 7,000; market steady on everything, a few killing cattle selling stronger. Fed native steers bring $7.25 to $8.65, which is less than they were bringing a year ago, but the change in relative positions of thin grades and finished cattle from a year ago are due to possibility of outcome, in which red conditions, cattle shortage and some other things figure. Grass cattle from the south are beginning to run and sell at $5.50 to $6.40 here today. Few southern up to days $7.50, beef pulp cattle from the west at $7.00, heifers $6.75 to $8.00, bulls $6.00 to $7.00, veal calves $8.50 to $10.00.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, May 26.—Oliver S. Green, with Walter Bros., Union Stock Yards, Chicago, reports the estimated receipts on Monday, May 26:

Cattle—23,000.
Hogs—34,000.
Sheep—24,000.

The receipts of steer cattle today overbalanced the demand. Yearlings light and handy weights and butcher stuff being the exception, and the bulk sold at lower, with some of the plain good weight kinds 10c to 15c lower.

There was a heavy rain during most of the forenoon and notwithstanding the poor fills, many of the 1250 to 1500 steers received no bids up to near the noon hour. A few fancy yearling heifers sold at $8.75, with choice to prime 1350 to 1550 pounds, $8.50 to $8.70, with a top of $8.70 for heavy weights.

Although there was a generous crop of yearlings they held about steady with a good demand. Butcher stock steady to firm. Stockers and feeders full steady. Bulls 10c lower. Calves steady at the recent high basis.

We quote choice to prime heavy heaves, $8.40 to $8.75; good to choice corn fed, $8.10 to $8.35; medium to good short fed, $7.80 to $8.00; plain to medium warmed up, $7.50 to $7.75; common to plain steers, $7.25 to $7.45; inferior to rough steers, $7.00 to $7.20; good to prime yearlings, $7.75 to $8.65; common to fair yearlings, $7.15 to $7.65. Fat cows, $5.00 to $5.50; heifers, $6.25 to $8.00; 20 fancy Angus yearlings sold at $8.75; bulls, $5.70 to $7.40; canners and cutters, $3.90 to $4.90; common heavy calves to good vealers, $5.25 to $9.75; fancy vealers, $10.00 to $10.25.

Inferior stockers to good feeders, $6.00 to $7.60. Selected stockers to choice heavy weight feeders $7.65 to $7.90.

The hog market opened strong and 10c to 15c higher. Bulk around $8.65; select packing and shipping, $8.45 to $8.75, with an extreme top $8.80, the average price paid for hogs today, the highest for over one month, and a narrow range in prices. The market closed with half advance lost.

The bulk of the sheep show a little decline. Early a few lambs sold steady, but later 10 to 15c lower. Shorn native ewes $3.50 to $5.85; shorn native weathers, $6.00 to $6.25; shorn western weathers, $4.00 to $5.00; native yearling weathers, $6.50 to 7.25; shorn native lambs, $5.00 to $7.25; shorn western lambs, $5.50 to $7.55; shorn Colorado lambs, $6.00 to $7.70; Spring lambs, $7.00 to $9.00.

AMERICAN PLAYERS PROVE DANGEROUS OPPONENTS

American Golfers Defeated Two Opponents Each in Golf Tournament in Scotland.

St. Andrews, Scotland, May 27.—Two American players disposed of two opponents each in the amateur golf championship tournament today. Heinrich Schmidt of Worcester, Mass., and Harold Weber of Toledo, O., were the victors in their matches and are playing so strongly that they are conceded a chance for the championship.

In the second and third rounds played today, Weber first beat Shepherd of the Henley club, three and one, and in the third round, defeated J. F. Myles, of the Royal and Ancient club, three and two.

Schmidt beat Captain Brune of the Royal North Devon club six and five and later defeated Lassen of Lytham and St. Anne's, one of the strongest players in the north of England, 3 and 2.

Campbell D. White of San Francisco, the other American left in the tournament, lost to Carmichael Dickson, of the Grange club, Monticello, Scotland, after being four up at the turn. White was beaten at the nineteenth hole.

Weber and Schmidt are now regarded as two of the most dangerous players here. Weber's opponent in the third round, J. F. Myles, is one of the best players in the country. Schmidt's imperturbability caused admiring comment. Nothing ruffled him and he easily disposed of Captain Brune, a retired English cavalry officer. He encountered a tougher customer, however, in Lassen, but at the short eighth hole, Schmidt, after pulling his first into the rough, holed a forty yard mashie pitch. This seemed to dishearten the Englishman and after that Schmidt gradually drove and accurate approach proving too much for Lassen.

DEFENSE INTRODUCES EVIDENCE TO PROVE ALIBI

Attempt to Show That Defendants Attended Conference of Mill Agents When They Are Alleged to Have Been Furthering a Conspiracy.

Boston, May 27.—The defense in the dynamiting conspiracy trial today introduced evidence purporting to show that on the night of January 19th, 1912, during the hours when the government alleges President William M. Wood of the American Woolen company and Frederick E. Atteaux were furthering a conspiracy to "plant" dynamite at Lawrence both defendants were attending a conference of mill agents. Since the beginning of the trial the prosecution has sought to prove that Wood and Atteaux and Dennis J. Collins conspired with John J. Green and Ernest W. Pitman to prejudice public opinion against the strike of textile operatives at Lawrence by hiding dynamite on premises occupied by the strikers.

Walter M. Lamont, agent of the Wood mill one of the American company's plants at Lawrence, testified that he saw Atteaux at Woods home at Andover on the night of January 19th. Lamont said that Wood and Atteaux were attending a conference of officials of the American company at which several appeals to the strikers to return to work were prepared.

FINE "COASTER BRAKE TRUST" $81,500 FOR LAW VIOLATION

Six Corporations and Eleven Individual Defendants Guilty of Violating Sherman Law.

Rochester, N. Y., May 27.—Fines aggregating $81,500 were imposed tonight in United States district court by Judge John R. Hazel of Buffalo, in the cases of six corporations and eleven individual defendants in the government's action against the so-called "coaster brake trust" for violation of the Sherman law. This afternoon six corporations and eight individuals pleaded guilty to charges of conspiracy to restrain trade and attempting to monopolize domestic and foreign trade.

Four individuals pleaded nolle contendere. Three of the four were among the eleven defendants fined. Six additional cases were discontinued by nolle prosequi.

The corporations and fines are: New Department Manufacturing Co., Bristol, Conn., $10,000. Corbin Screw corporation, New Britain, Conn., $10,000. Relapse Machinery Co., Elmyra, N. Y., $10,000. Buffalo Metal Goods Co., Buffalo, $2,000. Aurora Automatic Machinery Co., Chicago, $2,000.

Origin of the Christmas Stocking.
From Italy comes the legend from which we are supposed to get the time honored custom of hanging up the Christmas stocking. Good old St. Nicholas of Padua used to throw long knitted purses tied at both ends into the open windows of the very poor people, and these purses were of yarn and not unlike a footless stocking. Finally it became the custom of the people to hang these empty receptacles out of their windows on the night before Christmas so that St. Nicholas would put a gift into them as he passed by. By and by, when the coin of the realm became scarce, toys were put in for the children and useful presents for grown people. In the north country, where it was rather chilly at Christmas time, the purses were hung on the mantelpiece, and it was believed that the good old saint would come down the chimney and fill them. When these purses went out of fashion stockings were substituted and have been used ever since.

Feeling a Presence.

Reading a book recently, the writer was arrested by one sentence: "If I went into a room without knowing you to be there I should at once feel your presence." It is the imaginative address from a man to a woman. Most of us possibly have that curious instinct—the obverse of that of the horse that will not rest in a stable that has housed a bear—the instinct that knows the presence of the affinity. There are people—being to the general view excellent citizens—whom you cannot abide. There are people whose presence you detest and resent, and though you could give no particular reason for the antipathy you would rather die suddenly than live in the same street with them. Those are usually, I think, relatives of some sort who have the traditional claim to make themselves a nuisance. But haven't you felt the presence of the person you like?—London Chronicle.

Encouraging.

Recently an employee in a business house who had held a clerkship for several years went to the boss with a plea for an increase in salary. "I asked you for a little more salary a year ago," said the clerk, "but you told me that you were not able to give it to me at that time. Now a little baby has come to our home, which will add to the expense, and I would be very glad if you could favorably consider my request." "I see, I see," thoughtfully replied the boss. "Let me think it over a minute. Boy, I suppose?" "Yes, sir," happily answered the clerk, greatly encouraged by his employer's attitude. "I think I can fix it," responded the employer. "I won't be able to give you any more money, but just as soon as the boy gets big enough we will find a position for him in the office here."—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Next to Them.

"I'm sure," said the guest he had unexpectedly brought home to dinner that evening, "that I have put you out." "Not at all," she replied sweetly; "not at all. We gave you just what we were going to have ourselves—just our ordinary dinner, you know." "I wish I could believe that, but I still feel that I have put you to a great deal of trouble and annoyance. If so I am sorry that I allowed your husband to persuade me to come." "I don't want you to feel that way at all. We were delighted to have you with us. We love to have our friends drop in and take pot luck with us." And when he got outside he looked back at the house and muttered: "Liar! I smelled corned beef and cabbage when I entered that home, and what I got was English mutton chops and green peas."—Detroit Free Press.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK TRAIN.
Reading, England, May 27.—Two loud explosions occurred and great volumes of smoke rose from the platform as the express from London rushed into the station here at noon. A workman was struck on the neck by a small piece of metal, but no other damage was done. A piece of suffragette literature was found under the platform. The explosion is supposed to have been caused by a suffragette bomb. The police think that the intention was to wreck the train.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide is in Giving it a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vices may look nice and small now, but the point is--do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the scalp from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use." It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Attacks of Indigestion

"I believe Chamberlain's Tablets have saved my life," writes Mrs. Maggie Coil, Golden City, Mo. "I had pains in my stomach so bad I thought I could not live. Our doctor said it was congestion of the stomach. I would go to bed perfectly well and wake up in the night as bad as I could be and live. Our doctor said it would do no good to give medicine internally. He had to inject medicine in my arm. Since taking Chamberlain's Tablets I can eat anything I want without hurting me. This form of indigestion is extremely painful and often dangerous. By taking Chamberlain's Tablets after eating, and especially when you have fullness and weight in the stomach after eating, the disease may be avoided or at least avoided. Chamberlain's Tablets not only aid digestion, but strengthen and invigorate the stomach."

MAKING WAR ON MAIL ORDER BUSINESS

O. A. CHARLES OUTLINES WORK OF THE NATIONAL TRADE AND HOME LEAGUE.

Chamber of Commerce Speaker Believes That Retailer Can Keep His Own By Persistent Effort and Judicious Advertising—Merchants Themselves Must First Be Loyal.

About 100 merchants attended the Tuesday noon day luncheon given by the Chamber of Commerce at the Pacific Hotel. T. M. Tomlinson, chairman of the Retail Merchants section of the Chamber of Commerce presided and called upon Rev. Clyde Darsie to say grace. After the luncheon had been served the chairman introduced as the speaker of the day O. A. Charles, Muncie, Indiana, who represents the National Home Trade League.

Mr. Charles was for a number of years associated with the Muncie, Indiana Morning Star and it was while in newspaper work that he entered upon the campaign against mail order business that he has been waging ever since. In his home city of 35,000 people he found that the business of the retailers was gradually being curtailed through the inroads made upon it by the great mail order houses. He studied the question thoroughly and seriously and as a result had a series of newspaper articles which did much toward reclaiming for the retail merchants in Muncie, the business which was naturally and properly theirs. Not only were the merchants benefited but the consumers as well for they began to secure goods of better values at the same or less prices. The series of articles written during that memorable campaign twelve years ago formed the basis or nucleus about which the national home trade league has organized for work. Beginning in that Indiana city a few years ago the movement has grown and spread and now as the name indicates it has taken on a national character.

Works in Various States. Mr. Charles' work is to go from city to city and state to state and usually appearing under the auspices of business men's organizations to point out to merchants what can be done in organizing for their own protection against the great mail order houses. His theory is that a crisis confronts the retailers throughout the country through the growth of the mail order business and that as the village stores have been wiped out of existence during recent years that of the same thing is likely to happen to the retailers in the smaller cities unless steps are taken to prove to the people that they can get better values for the money they expended home than can possibly be done by sending to some great mail order house. Mr. Charles points out that remedy lies in large measures with the retailer himself for he believes that the average retailer does not advertise and argument combat his business enemy, the mail order house, with near the persistence and vigor that should be true. The principal business of the trade at home league is to arouse merchants to the fact that something can be done to stem the tide of mail order business and that something is best done in co-operation. The plan followed in most cities where the league ideas gained headway is to print in the newspapers a series of articles very similar to the ones which Mr. Charles ran originally in the Muncie Star. He argues that such a series of articles run say once a week throughout the year will have its advantages in calling the attention of the general public to the trade at home question. This however would only be available in as much as it was supplemented and augmented by the merchants themselves. Such articles would only mean a start in the general field of agitation and the value of the campaign would rest with the merchants. If they would all join in the movement and keep hammering away, not only asking people to trade at home but proving to them by actual demonstration the advantages of buying from their home merchants it would not be very long until distinct benefit would be evident in all the channels of the retail business. There is no doubt but that an immense amount of money goes out of Jacksonville, and Morgan county, every week to the mail order houses and if local merchants could but convince these buyers that the same values could be bought right here at home the great bulk of the money would be spent in Jacksonville.

Population Figures Significant. Without any attempt to summarize Mr. Charles' brief address at the luncheon yesterday some of the ideas that he developed are given above and still others appear in the sentences below. Mr. Charles spent no time with introductory stories but immediately after he had been introduced started to talk about "Trading at home." He said "The trade at home movement which has been going on for some years must really be said to just be taking on life. We are impressed with the meaning of the movement when we consider some facts about the population of the state shown by the last census. In the state of Missouri 549 cities lost in population and of this number 39 were county seats, the whole number of county seats in the state being 114. In Iowa 564 cities lost in population and included in this number were 49 of the 99 county seats. The figures for Indiana show that 639 cities lost in population of the number there being 22 out of 92 county seats. In Illinois 26 of our 192 county seats show decreased population and the whole number of Illinois cities presenting a loss were 788. True during the ten years shown by the census the whole state gained a gain of 870,000 and it is significant that of that number 576,000 went to Chicago. It may be interesting to know too that of the large number of young men and girls, who go to Chicago each year that only 5 per cent succeed and that 14 per cent are absolutely lost. This means that every day 14 boys and 7 girls who go to Chicago go to the bad."

Business Built By Advertising. "The mail order business is largely built up by advertising and I will guarantee to you that the mail order houses spend in Jacksonville and Morgan county from $3.00 to $5.00 for advertising where the retailer spends one. The average retailer spends that he does not want to fight the mail order houses because to fight them means to advertise them. I can not agree with this view and if you read a mail order catalogue you will find that there is little else in the first ten pages than knocking the retailer. In the campaign that I originally waged in Muncie I gathered together a vast quantity of mail order advertising and before I had finished when a visitor called at my office I could take him to an adjoining room and show him two and one half tons of mail order literature with no duplicate copies of catalogues. It is easy enough to combat the facts that the mail order houses put forth if one is willing to get down to business and meet the proposition face to face. Take the matter of stoves for instance offered by the mail order houses ostensibly at prices lower than the retailers in Muncie could offer. I took one of stoves and absolutely proved that the only difference in the stove was the fact that the mail order stove was many pounds lighter in weight than the one offered by the home merchant."

Merchants Must Be Consistent. "In making a campaign for buying at home the first thing to do is to be sure that the merchants themselves do all their buying in their home city. It too often happens that a merchant for example who is in the shoe business buys his supplies in other lines from out of the city or permits the members of his family to do so. Perhaps his wife buys her hats or suits in Chicago and perhaps he buys his own clothing there. You can't do much in educating the public in home buying if you are not absolutely consistent in the proposition yourself. I consider that the next five years will represent a critical period for the retail merchants of this country and the fight put up by the retailers will largely determine whether or not the mail order business shall continue to grow and develop to the distinct detriment of the smaller merchants in the cities and towns."

"Here are some facts which I have found from actual investigations. In Pana, Illinois 50 per cent of the goods worn and consumed there come from Chicago, St. Louis, Decatur and Springfield."

"In Taylorville the figures are from 33 1-3 to 50 per cent on goods purchased elsewhere."

"I don't know what the facts are in Jacksonville, but without making any inquiries I would be willing to wager that 25 per cent at least of the goods consumed in Jacksonville are bought elsewhere. Ask your bankers, your express agents, your freight agents, your postmaster about the goods received and the money sent out of town and I warrant you will be astounded at the figures. (See Fitchey has figures showing that each of the railroads in Jacksonville receive from 10 to 15 thousand pounds monthly for mail order business, this of course represents only a part of the goods shipped in.)"

"The controller for Sears, Roebuck & Co., told me that in cities where merchants band together and fight the mail order business that the big house stops sending literature there and devote their attention to other fields. This man explained to me that there was so much good territory yet unworked that it was useless to war about other cities. After the loyalty of the businessmen themselves comes the matter of organization. You have an organization here which can do much but you must remember that your paid secretary cannot do all by any means and that he must have constant and faithful assistance."

"The successful merchant must have stocks first, then salesmanship and then advertising. Too often merchants spent more time waiting for trade than on trade. Often the clerks are inattentive."

"As I go about from city to city I drop into stores just for experimenting to note the attention given me. In Boardman I wandered in to eight stores and only twice was I asked if I wanted to buy. In East St. Louis I visited six stores and only once was asked as to my desires. We need to learn to make the most of our time in business and to have all our employees constantly on the watch for customers. The average customer wants to be given attention and made to feel that his patronage is of importance. Keep hammering on the trade at home idea. Prove to the people the fallacy of the mail order catalogue lures and show them that you are here on the ground to correct any troubles or errors and you will keep the business which is properly the retailer's."

R. E. HIERONYMOUS SPEAKS AT ILLINOIS COLLEGE.

Former President of Eureka College Gives Students Sound Advice at Chapel Hour.

R. E. Hieronymus, one time president of Eureka college and at present the secretary of the Illinois Educational commission, was heard Monday morning at Illinois college in an address both entertaining and inspiring, in which he spoke as one having years of experience with college people and as a man whose advice is backed up by a personality of strength. He was brought to the city on the Rev. George L. Roberts foundation, a fun established to bring men of note to the college, from time to time.

In "What It Means to Go to College" the speaker discussed the change in ideals and purpose which one undergoes in his 4 years study, the habits formed and the associations made. He said that the place in which this awakening takes place becomes hallowed with a peculiar sacredness, that the institution which guides the young man or young woman to a firm and everlasting purpose becomes indeed his or her "Alma Mater" or "cherishing mother," leaving memories never to be effaced.

Dr. Hieronymus was accompanied by his wife. Both were entertained by President and Mrs. C. H. Rammelkamp.

IMPERATOR SAILING PUT OFF.

Berlin, May 27.—The Hamburg-American liner Emperor will make her first trip from Hamburg on June 11 instead of tomorrow, as originally scheduled. The change in the plan of the line has been made to give more time for getting everything in shape and for repairing some minor damages to machinery resulted from the trial trip. Under the new schedule the vessel should arrive in New York on June 18. The Emperor is the biggest steamship afloat, an eleven-storied floating palace, 710 feet long, with engines of 80,000 horse-power. Her displacement is 50,000 tons, and she can accommodate 5,000 passengers.

Mrs. Sarah Huntington of Centralia is in the city for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. William Floeth on East College avenue. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Donald Carlyle, a resident of Centralia who will visit in the city for several days.

Chicago, May 27.—Chicago defeated St. Louis 2 to 1 today and as a result of New York's double defeat went into third place. The game was a pitchers' battle between Overall and Sallie.

Singles by McLean and Evans in the eighth coupled with a sacrifice and an out saved the visitors from a shut out.

STATE SHOOTING TOURNEY.

Fort Dodge, Ia., May 27.—Half a hundred crack shots of national reputation faced the traps here today at the opening of the annual state trap-shooting tournament of the Iowa Sportsmen's association. The tournament programme his year covers three days. The daily card calls for ten events of fifteen targets each.

ON THE SIDELINES.

It would not be a very great surprise if some of the Three Eye club owners began to fly the signal of financial distress ere long. The bad weather has cut down the attendance at certain points and poor playing by some of the second division teams hasn't been conducive to drawing the fans out to see them beaten. Springfield is said to be somewhat straightened financially. It seems that Dick Kinsella is missed after all. He was the only man who ever made baseball a paying proposition in the capital city.

If the charges that the Quincy Herald makes against Umpire McNulty are true, and on the face of the statements of reputable witnesses, they would seem so, the Three Eye officials should lose no time in expelling this man from the ranks. He is accused of calling ball and strikes in such a manner that a no-hit game would be given Pitcher Keupper, of Bloomington. He tried to bluff the official scorer into giving a no-hit game but ran up against a snag. The Herald demands that the game rid itself of McNulty.

Burlington has taken the lead in the Central. Waterloo is second and Ottumwa has jumped into third place. Muscatine and Monmouth have changed places. The former now being in fifth place. Kewanee, Keokuk and Cedar Rapids are going along in the ruck and have no chance of improving their standing just now. Burlington claims to have the best team in its history, which ought to result in the pennant flying in the river town.

The Cubs played in great luck. Their manager was banished yet they won and by New York losing a double header they take third place, a mighty comfortable berth. Best of all, Overall pitched like a sure enough big league twirler. If he has really "returned" Evers' lot should be one of much less worry from this on.

Thirteen players in a game sounds bad. That's the number Huggins used trying to win from the Cubs. No wonder he lost.

Guess McGraw has about concluded that the pennant will go elsewhere this time. Two defeats in one day at the hands of the lowly Boston Braves does not sound like the mighty Giants of old. Still there is no telling what may happen. Take Pittsburgh. The Pirates were regarded as out of it a couple of weeks ago. Now look at the bid they are making. And it isn't an impossibility that they will yet figure in the final world's series.

The Athletics seem to have Washington's goat. Both of those defeats for the Senators were decisive and leave no doubt as to which is the better team. It is certain that unless they can develop a helper for Johnson the team will never make the grade.

Grif has quit his clown business and is using Altrock and Schaffer as legitimate ball players. And these two veterans are playing a corking good game too. See what Nick did yesterday. It is all nonsense to try and turn the national game into a vaudeville exhibition. If Grif will pay more attention to the playing end of the game than he has been doing of late he will get better results.

With Plank and Bender showing a decided return to their 1912 form the task of winning the pennant should be that much easier for Connie Mack. It was great ball these vets handed out to the slipping Senators. If only Jack Coombs had not failed Connie the race would be all over by July 4th. It's more than half over now, anyway you look at it.

DIAMOND JUBILEE.

Monticello seminary at Godfrey, a few miles from Alton, will celebrate its diamond jubilee June 1, 2 and 3. Seventy-five years ago the first class entered the school. Events of the jubilee celebration will commemorate these 75 years of active work. In the first class of students in the institution at that time was a young lady who at that time was known as Miss Mary L. Samuel and to her were the first questions put by the teachers and answers given by her. That pupil was afterwards Mrs. William P. Barr, mother of Samuel O. Barr of this city.

A very interesting story relating the history of the seminary from its founding by Benjamin Godfrey, a Cape Cod sailor, who tiring of the sea, and his rough life for many years, who had accumulated a fortune, came west and furnished the sum of $119,000 with which to erect the first building and equip it for school purposes, is contained in the Globe-Democrat of last Sunday.

J. M. Russell of Carrollton is a guest at the home of his brother-in-law, Capt. J. W. Waller on East Superior avenue.

UNITED STATES CREAM SEPARATORSCost More than Other Separators*And Are Worth More*Price, $25. and up

You would not expect to buy the best cow in a herd for the same price as the poorest cow. Neither would you sell your most productive cow at as cheap a price as your least productive cow. So it is with the United States Cream Separators.

The very fact that the U. S. has won such awards as The World's Record for Close Skimming and the Grand Prize at Seattle are obvious proofs of highest excellence.

The very fact that a United States Cream Separator (containing non-rusting nickel-silver skimming sections) can be mechanically cleaned in only half the time needed to wash other separators is a priceless boon to any farmer's wife.

The very fact that the United States is the most simple and convenient with its light running, automatic oiling, thorough flushing and enclosed gears has caused the best known and practical dairy men to select it for their own use.

We do not claim to give you something for nothing any more than you would give us your best cow; but we can sell you, at a fair price, the cream separator you will admit to be the best you have ever seen, if you will simply give it a free trial at your home.

Presenting America's Greatest Photoplayer, Arthur Johnson.

One of the most powerful dramas this writer has ever seen on the screen. It is always a pleasure to see Arthur Johnson in a picture, but when he puts his energies to a two-reel subject we are certain of something unusual. This drama is splendidly staged and splendidly acted. Most of the scenes are interiors, and they are elaborate. Mr. Johnson always is skillful in plotting a restaurant scene. So also he is here. Above all, however, in this picture is the holding power. From beginning to end it keeps the onlooker on edge. While Mr. Johnson personally dominates the two reels, there are several who yield him the strongest support—Florence Hackett, Lottie Briscoe, Charles Brandt, Harry Kendall and Clara Lambert.

The Power of the Cross

Characterized by grandeur, perfect interpretation and correctness. No expense has been spared in making this one of the most perfect and interesting pictures.

HOSTS OF GRAY IN REUNION.

Remnant of the Confederate Army Occupy City of Tents at Chattanooga.

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 27.—Scenes of unbounded enthusiasm attended the formal opening of the twenty-third annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans in this city today. In a great tented city erected in one of the downtown parks thousands of the old soldiers, constituting the remnant of the gray-clad host of the Confederate army, with their affiliated "Sons" and "Daughters," answered roll call this morning. The camp is named in honor of Gen. Alexander P. Stewart, Tennessee's famous military leader.

The convention of the veterans was called to order in the Auditorium at 10 o'clock this morning by Gen. George P. Hickman, commanding the Tennessee division. The invocation was delivered by Rev. J. W. Bachman, chaplain general. Governor Hooper of Tennessee, Mayor Thompson of Chattanooga, and W. E. Brock, chairman of the local reunion committee, formally welcomed the veterans and visitors.

Response was made by Gen. Bennett H. Young of Louisville, commander-in-chief. Occupying seats on the platform were Gen. Julian S. Carr of North Carolina, Gen. K. M. Van Zandt of Texas, Gen. George Harrison of Alabama, Gen. William B. Haldeman of Kentucky and other prominent officers and representatives of the United Confederate Veterans, the Sons of Veterans and Daughters of the Confederacy.

The appearance of each of the old commanders in the hall was the signal for an enthusiastic demonstration. The veterans arose in a body, hats, handkerchiefs and coats went into the air, and cheer after cheer rang out, the gallery joining in the applause.

During the afternoon business sessions were held by the Sons of Veterans and the Confederate States Memorial association. Another interesting feature of the day was the sponsors' parade, which made its way through the camp of the veterans and along several of the leading thoroughfares of the city. The parade was led by the sponsor for the south, Miss Kate Daffin of Texas, who rode in a gorgeously decorated automobile, with a troop of cavalry as escort.

SKIN ERUPTION CAME ON CHEEK

Started in Pimples. Nearly All One Cheek Solid Sore. Very Fretful. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Face All Healed Up.

Kingsley, Mich.—"Last May my thirteen months' old baby had a sore come on her cheek. It started in four or five small pimples and in two or three hours' time spread to the size of a silver dollar. It spread to her eye. Then water would run from the pimples and wherever that touched it caused more sores until nearly all one cheek and up her nostrils were one solid sore. She was very fretful. She certainly was a terrible looking child, and nothing seemed to be of any use. Then I got some Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. She tried to rub off everything we put on so that we would sit and hold her hands for two hours at a time, trying to give the medicine a chance to help her. But after I washed it with Cuticura Soap and then put on the Cuticura Ointment they seemed to soothe her and she did not try to rub them off. It was only a few days before her face was all healed up, and there has been no return of the trouble since. We thought that baby's face would surely be scarred, but it is not." (Signed) Mrs. W. J. Cleland, Jan. 5, 1912.

A STRONG REFERENCE.
A young man recently applied for a position with a large printing house, and not having a letter of reference, offered his bank book. It showed a regularity of entries of deposit. It was a very strong recommendation, indicating character and persistency, which finally secured for him a good position.

THE WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

FRISCO SECURITIES DROP TO NEW RECORD

RECEIVERSHIP PROCEEDINGS AGAINST COMPANY PROPOSED.

C. & E. I. Certificates in Which Frisco Had a Substantial Interest Fell 10 Points—Receivers Appointed For C. & E. I.

(By Associated Press)
New York, May 27.—An event long foreshadowed in financial and railroad circles—the proposed institution of receivership proceedings against the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad company—was the outstanding feature of today's stock market. The company's pressing financial needs and its inability to secure assistance found reflection during the past month in the steady decline of its various securities which reached a climax today in the establishing of a series of new low records.

Long before announcement of the proposed receivership was known the common and preferred shares of the Frisco System were being liquidated as well as the four per cent refunding bonds and the five per cent general bonds. The latter declined 8 points, the 4s 3½, the first preferred stock, 7 and the second preferred 3½, these quotations representing maximum losses, from which little recovery was made in the course of the session.

Chicago and Eastern Illinois certificates in which the Frisco road has a substantial interest fell 10 points. Receivers were appointed for the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, in Chicago, after the closing hour here.

There was sympathetic weakness throughout the day in Rock Island issues, Missouri Pacific, Kansas City, Southern and Denver, and Rio Grande common and preferred which last two also sold at low record figures. The news from abroad was scarcely of a hopeful character. London sold on balance here to the extent of perhaps 10,000 shares.

DRY WEATHER REPORTS MAKE WHEAT BULLISH

FINISH RANGES FROM ¼C DECLINE TO ¼C ADVANCE.

Damage Reports That Controlled Prices During Greater Part of Session Indicated a Decided Spreading of Crop Damage.

(By Associated Press)
Chicago, May 27.—Dry weather complaints from both the northwest and southwest made sentiment bullish most of the time today in the wheat pit. At the opening and the close, however, the market showed weakness. Compared with last night the finish ranged from ¼c decline to ¼c advance.

In corn there was a net loss of ¼c to 2 @ 2½c and for oats a fall of ¼c to 2c. Provisions wound up unchanged to 3½c higher.

Texas reports that wheat there would be ready to harvest next week and that the state would yield 8,000,000 to 10,000,000 bushels had considerable influence toward depressing prices in the final dealings.

There were also late denials from Oklahoma millers that the crop there would amount to only 15,000,000 bushels. Early bullishness was due largely to improved field prospects in Europe. Damage reports that controlled wheat prices the greater part of the session indicated a decided spreading of crop injury in the United States. The Kansas outlook appeared to be lowered.

Missouri sent word of Hessian fly havoc and it was declared the upper portions of Minnesota and North Dakota were suffering from lack of moisture. Conditions in the Red River valley were

CAUSE OF THE GRIPPE

How to Escape Its Dangerous After Effects.

With so much grippé prevalent this winter a few words of advice regarding its cause and treatment will not be out of place.

Grippé is an infectious disease easily taken when the system is in a tired or run-down condition.

The best means of prevention are to keep the blood in good healthy condition, and if the system gets into a weak, run-down condition, take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic.

A lady from Long Branch, N. J., says: "Grippé left me in a nervous, weakened, run-down condition. After taking three bottles of Vinol I am better and stronger than I have been for years, and I cheerfully recommend Vinol to all who have suffered from the grippé and need strength." (Name furnished on request.)

We have never sold in our store such a valuable strength creator and health restorer for the convalescent, the weak and run-down as Vinol, and your money will be returned if it does not do all we claim for it. See P. Alcott, Jacksonville, Ill. P. S. If you have any skin trouble try Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.

COTTON CROP PROSPECTS.

Experts Differ Materially in Views on Prospects.

New Orleans, La., May 27.—It is many years since there has been such a marked division of opinion as to the future of the cotton crop. The year thus far has been a peculiar one which presents a variety of apparently sound arguments either for or against another bumper crop. Perhaps one of the most effective arguments advanced by those interested in increasing the price of last year's cotton is that three big crop years seldom come consecutively. On the other hand boll weevil conditions caused very early planting over a larger acreage than ever before has been set out in the king of staples.

In the eastern belt there has been too little rain and west of the Mississippi it has been too cold. Large areas have had to be replanted and there has been a shortage of good seed. But even under these adverse conditions there are plenty of authorities who confidently predict a 16,000,000 bale crop.

Now that warmer weather has set in, there is reason to think that the slowness in early germination will be more than overcome. The danger of floods from the Mississippi is past and there will be at least 300,000 bales raised on land that was under water at planting time last year.

Now that the crop is getting well started the chances seem to favor it, as the plants have been insured to the changeable climate of the cotton belt through generations. But regardless of the strength of the plant the arch enemy, the boll weevil, has to be considered, and as to his ravages no one can predict with any degree of certainty.

FACULTY OF CONSERVATORY GIVES CLOSING RECITAL

Large Audience Delighted With Artistic Work of Musicians.

Jacksonville music lovers enjoyed a great treat Tuesday night on the occasion of the faculty recital of the Conservatory of Music. The recital more than fulfilled the high expectations of pleasure which had attracted an appreciative and enthusiastic audience at Northminster church.

The program, beginning with the Beethoven number and ending with the Wolf-Ferrari Trio, held delight for everyone because of its variety and its musical value. The Beethoven quartet was offered for the first time in Jacksonville—at least in many years. As it was interpreted by Messrs. Kritch, Munger and Jensen, the nobility and humor, the delicacy and heroic beauty of this great composition linger in the thought of those who heard it. The dignity and force of the first movement, the grandeur of the adagio, the charm and depth characteristic of the work throughout and the sincerity of the musicians who presented it, made an impression that was truly Beethovenian.

Miss Oldfield sang three numbers, an aria from Sappho and two songs, and was in excellent voice, which means that she greatly pleased the audience. The charming lightness of the waltz song Dans le Plaine, given with such staccato delicacy and true French spirit, that it was surprising to hear the contrasting aria, sombre and dramatic, interpreted with equal insight. The power and depth of feeling in the voice in this number was astonishing, as also in the Russian song, Thou Billowy Harvest Field, Rach Maninoff, a remarkable composition, in the folk-song manner, with a truly splendid climax at the end. Miss Oldfield was obliged to respond to an encore, and sang "The Eagle" by Busch.

The Polt-Ferrari Trio, too held a new place on Jacksonville programs. The composer, whose better-known operatic works, "The Secret of Suzanne," and "The Jewels of the Madonna," have gained great interest and favor, is an exponent of modern forms and harmonies. In their trio, however, he does not employ the modern tricks of expression to the extreme that antagonizes those who are not in sympathy with the spirit of the new school. The work is dramatic and original and altogether delightful. Every movement—especially the scherzo and the finale, found favor with the audience.

The final concert given by the Conservatory is Friday evening in Westminster church.

HARDIN LIGHT GUARDS.

I was interested in the article concerning the "Hardin Light Guards" in your weekly Journal of the 21st, especially as I and a chum and classmate had been in touch with that company until the time of its actual organization, and through parental solicitation remained at home. But he unlike myself, later enlisted in the service, was wounded, came home, finally recovered, was discharged from the service. He was married and lived a number of years, and whose widow yet resides on the old homestead near Pisgah. I refer to John D. Fry. In the article referred to I notice the statement, "The whole of the senior class of Illinois college enlisted in the guards, etc."

Now this is more honor than the class is entitled to, the facts being that two of the class entered the service at that time. They were Hardin G. Keplinger of Franklin and Stephen B. Little. The commencement was held as usual in Strawn's hall and these two though absent were granted their diplomas. Honor to whom we honor.

This is the interest of exactness. J. W. Craig, Class of '61, Woodson, Ill.

CLASS DAY EXERCISES AT HIGH SCHOOL

Large Audience Present at Last Public Appearance of Class of 1913 Tuesday Evening.

The high school auditorium was full to overflowing Tuesday evening at the last public appearance of the seventy graduates of the class of 1913. An excellent program was given and the class of 1914 was installed as the leading one in school with solemn and impressive ceremony. As a mark of appreciation to their class officer, W. G. Bate, the class presented him with a gift of fine silverware. After the exercises, many of the audience remained to inspect the industrial and art exhibits in different rooms of the building. A reunion of the class of 1882 was held at the conclusion of the class day program.

Homer Furr, the class prophet, gave his views of what each member of the class would be doing thirty years from now. His paper which was highly humorous, was in the form of a letter from one member of the class to another.

The historian, Miss Norma Perbix, traced the growth of 1913 from the days of freshman inexperience to these of senior wisdom and dignity. She told of the social events that had enlivened them through their four years career, not forgetting the Junior-Senior reception and class banquet of recent date.

If Weir Wood doesn't become a poet of note it will not be because he hasn't tried right. His class poem, filled with humorous bits on his classmates and class officer, was one of the best appreciated numbers on the program.

As the class was of "sound mind and warm heart" a last will and testament was drawn up. Miss Ruth Brittenham, the reader of the instrument, enumerated in detail the faults, failings, good qualities and virtues left by the seniors to the juniors.

The "spooniest of all spoons" was next bequeathed to the class of 1914 by Miss Dorothy Camp, the senior vice-president. Miss Clara Lane received the trophy and tied to it the colors of 1914. She thanked the seniors for the gift of the spoon which had "dished up so many victories" and wished she might dip up plenty of good fortune for the seniors of next year.

James Kolp, the class president, at this point presented Mr. Bate with the best wishes of his classmates, at the same time handing him the silverware. The retiring class officer expressed his thanks for the gift with the hope that the class regrets its departure from the high school as keenly as he does his own.

The presentation of souvenirs to the seniors followed. Miss Helen Wheeler called each senior by name and presented him with the object most suitable to his tastes or habitual occupation.

The program was closed by all joining in the class song, which was written for the occasion by Miss Irene Sprague.

Reunion of 1882.
Seven members were present of the class of 1882 at an informal reunion after the class day exercises. There are twelve living of the fifteen who were graduated from the high school thirty-one years ago. Those present were A. M. Robinson, Julius G. Strawn, Mrs. Siddell B. Sorrells, Mrs. Carl E. Black, Mrs. Ralph Reynolds, Mrs. Kate S. Ator and Mrs. Nellie D. Gunn. Misses Laura Hammond and Mary Pechloeffel and Mrs. Fred Metcalf of Franklin, who were not present, are the other local members of the class. It was possible to spend only a few moments together last night but the members of the class greatly enjoyed meeting each other again and talking over their school days. All are now filling useful places in the world.
